CITY NICKNAMES.

Fitty Given in Various Municipalities i This Country.

For years Buftalo's claim to the name, Queen City of the Lakes, has been hotly contested by Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, and even Duluth, but no one could lay claim to the Bison city, by which it has often been designated. It now adds another name to Maitland, Tuesday last, January 7, 1802. -Mrs. Alice Maple has returned from its list, which will probably not be The funeral services were held Wednesa two weeks' visit with her daughter disputed-the Rainbow city, in deference to the exposition. Chicago during the period of the World's Fair was known as the White city, in acknowledgement of the staff on its fair buildings, but the title did not survive the close of the fair, and it has reverted to its former name, Garden city, although it is more frequently referred to as the Windy city. St. Louis has, perhaps, the largest number of nicknames. It has been called the Iron city, the Mound city, the Beer city, the American Frankfort and heard to say that he had formerly lived down to Craig for a week or two, help the New Vienna. ## ONCE IS ENOUGH TO SEE

Gustave Dore's portrait of Dante is worth seeing—once. But once is enough. Some such look you notice on the faces of those who have suffered, and still suffer, much physical pain; people subject to rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, periodic headache, lumbago, or pain from some old lesion. This painhabit puts its marks on them, as the custom of handling ropes crooks a sailor's fingers; or as too much riding of a bicycle stamps a worried expression on certain faces. No wonder people said of the Italian poet as he passed along, "There goes

Fifth Day,

THE MAN WHO NEVER LAUGHS." The complaints above named all yield to the action of Benson's Porous Plasters, and quickly too. Not only those, but colds and coughs, kidney and liver affections, all convestions and muscular strains, diseases are open to external treatment. It is frequently said that Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master. It cures when others are not even able to relieve. For thirty years the leading external remedy. The old-style plas-ters, as well as salves, liniments, oils, etc., have little or no efficacy as compared with it. Use it. Trust it. Keep it in the Ask for Benson's Plaster; take no other.
